

The Holy Gospel is written in the 1st chapter of the Gospel according to Saint John beginning at the 29th verse. Glory be to thee, O Lord.
 The next day John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, “Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, ‘After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.’ I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel.” And John testified, “I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, ‘He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’ And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God.” The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, “Look, here is the Lamb of God!” The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi” (which translated means Teacher), “where are you staying?” He said to them, “Come and see.” They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o’clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, “We have found the Messiah” (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas” (which is translated Peter). Praise be to thee, O Christ.

St. Paul's Famous Marmalade – Many, many thanks to the small but mighty group of ladies and gentlemen who worked so hard making our famous St. Paul's Cathedral Seville Orange Marmalade during this past week. Without their help and the help of their volunteer friends this project just would not happen. Marmalade making has come to an end for this year and there is now a good supply of our famous marmalade for sale. About 550 jars were filled during this past week. Due to the increased cost of the oranges and jars we have raised our prices slightly. The cost of a 250 ml jar of regular marmalade is now $6.00 with a case of 12 jars costing $72.00. Marmalade with Scotch Whiskey costs $7.00 for a 250 ml jar with a case of 12 jars costing $84.00. There are a small number of 125 ml jars available costing $3.00 each. We also have a limited number of 250 ml jars of Meyer Lemon Marmalade and Blood Orange Marmalade costing $6.00 each. To purchase marmalade, please see Esther Moore at the jam table in Cronyn Hall at the coffee hour after the 10 am service on Sundays. Marmalade can also be purchased from Tim Skinner at the reception desk during the week.

Candlemas – Candlemas, celebrated on February 2, commemorates Jesus' first visit to the Temple in Jerusalem and is also known as the "Presentation of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Temple." It marks the fortieth day after Christmas and is the time of year when candles to be used in the church over the coming year are traditionally blessed.

St. Paul's Cathedral will be celebrating Candlemas this year by offering to members of the congregation tapers which have been blessed during the Eucharist. We hope that these candles will help us to remember, as Simeon said, that Christ is a "light for revelation to the Gentiles."
