The Epistle is written in the 3rd chapter of 1 Corinthians beginning at the 1st verse. And so, brothers and sisters, I could not speak to you as spiritual people, but rather as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for solid food. Even now you are still not ready, for you are still of the flesh. For as long as there is jealousy and quarrelling among you, are you not of the flesh, and behaving according to human inclinations? For when one says, "I belong to Paul," and another, "I belong to Apollos," are you not merely human? What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you came to believe, as the Lord assigned to each. I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labour of each. For we are God's servants, working together; you are God's field, God's building.

Here endeth the Epistle.

The Holy Gospel is written in the 5th chapter of the Gospel according to Saint Matthew beginning at the 21st verse. Glory be to thee, O Lord. Jesus said, “You have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not murder’; and ‘whoever murders shall be liable to judgement.’ But I say to you that if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be liable to judgement; and if you insult a brother or sister, you will be liable to the council; and if you say, ‘You fool,’ you will be liable to the hell of fire. So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift. Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are on the way to court with him, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison. Truly I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny. You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to go into hell. It was also said, ‘Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.’ But I say to you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. Again, you have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not swear falsely, but carry out the vows you have made to the Lord.’ But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let your word be ‘Yes, Yes’ or ‘No, No’; anything more than this comes from the evil one.” Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Marmalade – There is still a good supply of Seville Orange marmalade for sale. The cost of a 250 ml jar of regular marmalade is $6.00 with a case of 12 jars costing $72.00. Marmalade with Scotch Whiskey costs $7.00 for a 250 ml jar with a case of 12 jars costing $84.00. There are a small number of 125 ml jars available costing $3.00 each. Marmalade is available for sale at the jam table in Cronyn Hall at the coffee hour after the 10 a.m. service or from Tim Skinner at the reception desk during the week. A large part of the expenses for this project is the cost of the jars. We have space to store the empty jars at the Cathedral and would encourage anyone with empty 250 ml or 125 ml jars to return them for refilling next year. We would also encourage anyone who might like to help with this project in the future to leave their name and contact information at the jam table. Marmalade making usually takes place over one or two weeks in late January or early February. Also, a great big thank you to all who helped with the marmalade making this year. Your help is much appreciated.
